FOREWORD

The genealogy of the eleven generations of the Laubach Family goes back in time nearly 300 years to one Reinhart Laubach born in Germany in 1668, who with his son Christain Laubach and wife Susan Catherine and their four children, John George, nine years old, Joanna Elizabeth, seven years old, Peter, four years old, and Conrad, one year old, emigrated from Germany to the U. S. landing at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept, 16, 1738.

They later settled in Lower Saucon Township, Northampton Co., Pa. Here two more sons were born, Frederick, born May 10, 1744, and Reinhart born in 1748.

John George Laubach, the oldest of the five sons had twelve children, one of whom was John Christain Laubach.

John Christain Laubach had eleven children, one of whom was John Laubach.

John Laubach had eleven children, ten sons and one daughter.

The data which follows in this book is concerned not only with the ancestors of John Laubach, but with data on about 600 living descendants and around 130 deceased descendants of John Laubach.

DESCENDENTS OF ABRAHAM LAUBACH

ABRAHAM⁶ LAUBACH, (John⁵, John Christian⁴, John George³, Christian², Reinhart¹), was the oldest son in a family of ten sons and one daughter. He was born January 14, 1821 on the old Laubach homestead near Benton, Columbia Co., Pa.; died June 9, 1892 at Port Townsend, Washington, age 70 years, 11 mos., 15 days. He was married March 2, 1843 by Rev. S. Worthington in Methodist Episcopal Church in Pittsburg, Pa. to Emaline Pollock, born November 10, 1824 in Quakertown, Pa.; died September 28, 1895, age 70 years, 10 mos., 15 days.

The following data "On Memoirs" in the Methodist Episcopal Puget Sound Conference Journal for 1893 gives in part a brief history of the life of Abraham Laubach.

"His early advantages for a thorough education was very limited, but thirsting for knowledge and laudably ambitious to excell in life he overcame obstacles and laid upon every available help to a life of Christian usefulness. With this in view he entered the office of the Pittsburg Christian Advocate in 1839 and learned the printers trade. In the following year he was soundly converted and joined the Liberty State Methodist Church.

"From Pittsburg he removed with his family in 1845 to Ohio, and from there in 1845 to Charleston, West Virginia. Here he was called into more active work in the church as a local preacher. In 1848 he became the editor and publisher of a church and temperance paper in Mt. Vernon, Ohio. After two years this was discontinued and moving to Tiffin, Ohio, he became manager and editor of The Tiffin Whig. This relation was continued for three years. But he never found his proper sphere or calling in life until 1853, when he moved to Iowa, joined the Iowa conference and gave himself up wholly to the Methodist ministry. His several appointments in the Iowa Conference and results were as follows: Osceola 1 yr, 1853-54; Hartford 2 yrs., 1854-56; Monroe 2yrs. 1856-58; Montejuma 1 yr. 1858-59; Bentonsport, 3 yrs. 1859-62. At the close of this term his voice failed him and he was compelled to take a rest for about two years. His next appointment was Agency City 1864-67. His last appointment was at Batavia 1867-70."

During the seventeen years of his connection with the Iowa Conference, two thousand two hundred and fifty souls were saved through his instrumentality and added to the church. What an array of jewels for his crown through all eternity.

"In 1870 he was transferred to the Oregon Conference and stationed at Port Townsend, Washington. Here in the far West he entered upon his work with the same zeal and expectation of success that marked his ministry in the East, but alas he found, the influence around him here very different from those of the rural settlements of Iowa. Rent and living expenses were very high and his receipts small, and by the end of the first year and for the first time in his life, his work a failure, and himself in debt. There was but little in the state of the church where he labored, or in society around him at that time to sympathize with him in these heroic efforts. The discouragements of the case compelled him to take up a piece of wild land at the head of Point Discovery Bay, where with unparalleled energy and untiring industry he literally hewed out of the wilderness for himself and family a comfortable home."

"In 1876, his practical experience as printer and publisher pointed him out as a suitable one to fill the place of business manager of the Pacific Christian Advocate. He accordingly moved to Portland, Oregon, and was subsequently appointed publisher and business manager of the Advocate. While in Oregon he filled various pulpits with acceptability, and for one or more years had charge of East Portland circuit."

"Returning to his home in Washington he fell into the Puget Sound Conference, taking a super-annuated relation which remained unchanged until his death."
